I would have re-arrange my ex-wife's 'Hyebere Sesafo' - Pastor Love

Pastor Love and his ex-wife, formally known as Christian Love

Ex-husband of celebrated Gospel Musician, Christiana Love, Pastor Love has said that current crop of Gospel artistes in the country produce empty songs.

He indicated that it is worth a time to listen to Stonebwoy and Shatta Wale because they preach good messages in their songs as compared to the current gospel artistes in the country.

The Pastor who was speaking on Accra-based Zylofon FM noted that most gospel songs currently do not sell any message and cannot awaken a dead fly or make an individual turn a new leave.

Speaking on his ex-wife's hit song "Hyebere Sesafo", he acknowledged that the song was a good song but indicated that if he was in charge when the song was done, he would have arranged it differently to make it better.
